

An aerial photograph of a city waterfront at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. The water is dark blue with many small sailboats scattered across it. The city buildings are visible on the left side, with some trees showing autumn colors. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and scenic.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT AND RELATIONSHIPS INSTITUTE

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN–MADISON Division of Extension
ALL PROGRAM MEETING 2019

Vision Document

<https://drive.google.com/drive/u/0/folders/0AKMYcoNf9c6xUk9PVA>

Program Managers

Jenny Abel, Financial Security

Brook Berg, Family Engagement & Relationships

Sara Richie, Life Span

Program Panel

Families & Technology: Anne Clarkson

Aging Communities: Karen Dickrell

Brief Interventions: Robert Nix

Small Saving Build Big Dreams: Chelsea
Wunnicke

Professional Resource Evening Engagement

5:30 pm-7:30 pm

Room G

THANK YOU

Danielle Y. Hairston Green

Danielle.HairstonGreen@wisc.edu

Radical Candor

Danielle Y. Hairston Green, Ph.D., HDFS-CFCS

Institute Director

Human Development and Relationships

INTRODUCTION TO RADICAL CANDOR

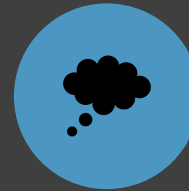

WHAT DOES IT MEAN
TO BE RADICALLY
CANDID?

EFFECTIVE
GUIDANCE: THE
RADICAL CANDOR
QUADRANT

GROUP PRACTICE

THOUGHT PARTNER

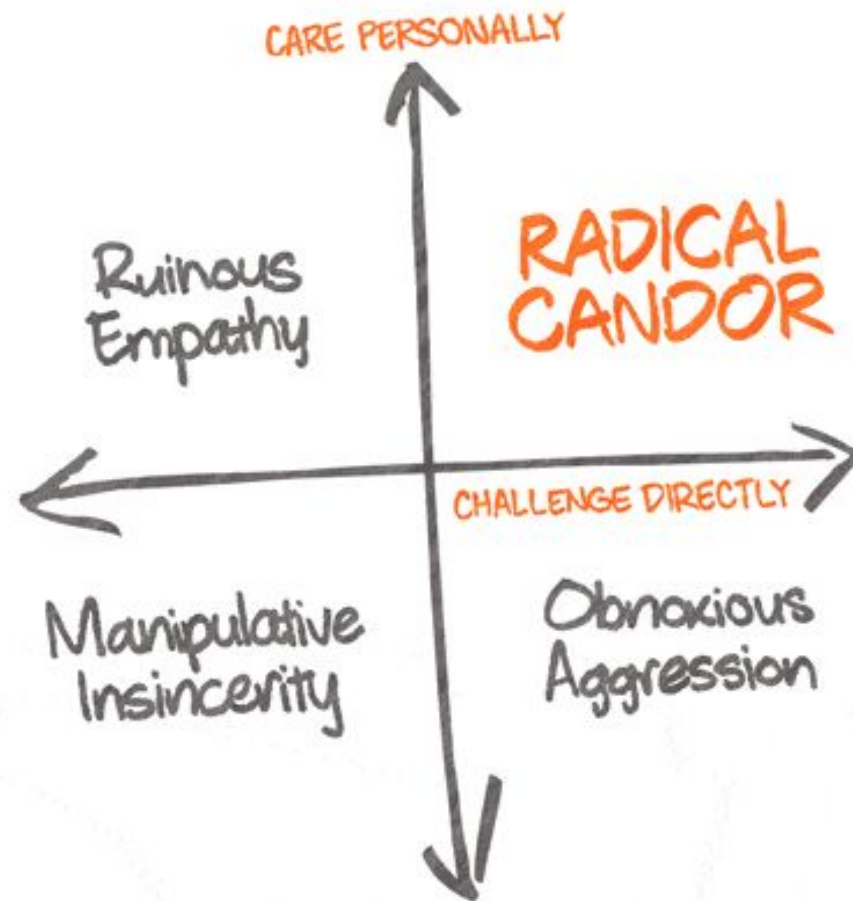

NEXT STEPS!

WHAT IS RADICAL CANDOR?

SAY WHAT YOU THINK!!

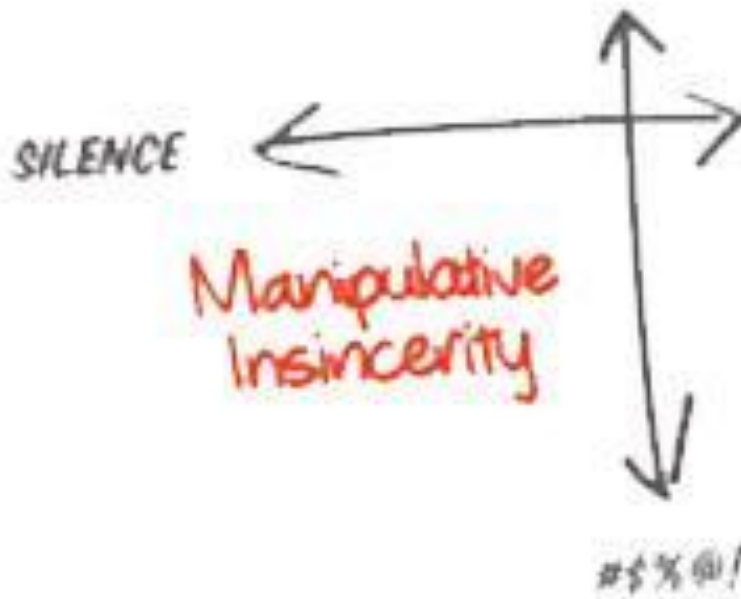

EFFECTIVE GUIDANCE

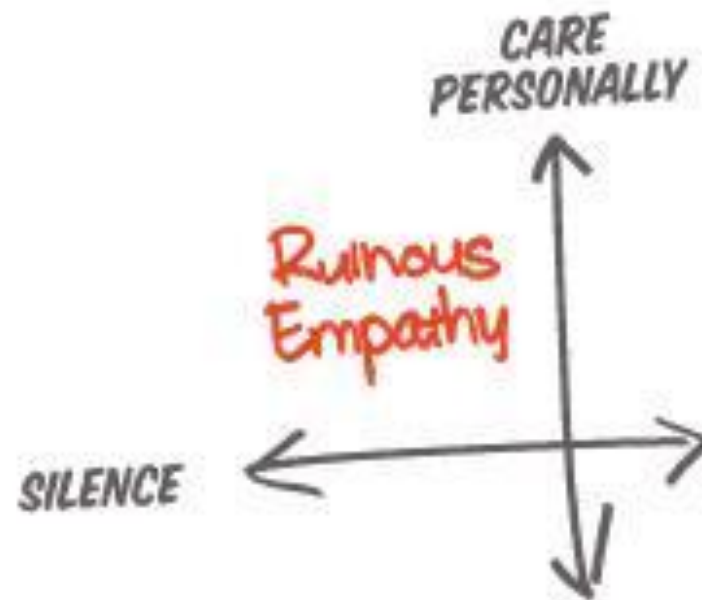

Obnoxious Aggression™

CHALLENGE DIRECTLY ---- DON'T CARE

Manipulative Insincerity™

DON'T CARE ---- DON'T CHALLENGE DIRECTLY

Ruinous Empathy™

CARING PERSONALLY ---- DON'T CHALLENGE DIRECTLY

ACTIVITY

THOUGHT PARTNER

SHOW UP!

THANK YOU!

Professional Development Sessions

Please note that Sessions that will have separate rooms are:

Teaching Via Zoom Room Q

Using Social Media to Teach Room R

Thank you!

November 20th

Literacy Link Team Meeting Pyle Center @12:30 pm
Strengthening Relationships Between NonCustodial
Fathers and Mothers of their Children Ext. Bldg
@1:30 pm

Next HDR Zoom Meeting December 19th @9:00 am

IMPACT ON THE TEAM AND THE ORGANIZATION

