Learning from the Experts

Next Book Topic:
The Developer’s Perspective

Book Discussion for Small City Downtowns

Inviting downtown executives, city planners, investors, and others interested in community economic development

- Discuss one book in three weekly sessions
- Zoom conferencing to connect participants and author
- Access the experience and perspective of the experts
- Help your Downtowns and Communities thrive
- Explore the multitude of challenges and opportunities
- Live discussions with the author of each book

Register Now For:
SHAPING A CITY

ITHACA, NEW YORK,
A DEVELOPER’S PERSPECTIVE
MACK TRAVIS

May 21st, 28th & June 4th
12:00 to 1:00 pm CST

- Registration is limited to 25, fee waived
- Contact: william.ryan@wisc.edu (608) 334 7735

Cornell University
Community & Regional Development Institute (CaRDI)

Extension
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN–MADISON
Community Economic Development