

How to File a Complaint of Discrimination or Harassment
Related to UW-Extension Programs, Services, and Activities
(by clientele)

UW-Extension takes complaints related to Affirmative Action, Equal Employment Opportunity, Civil Rights, and Sexual Harassment very seriously. A complaint or charge of discrimination or harassment can be registered by any person (employee, program or activity participant, job applicant, visitor, volunteer, etc.) who has reason to believe that they have been subjected to or witnessed unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation in an Extension education program or activity, or in the employment setting. For further information, please see the UW-Extension policy on Unlawful Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Protected Status Harassment, and Retaliation.

If you believe you experienced or witnessed discrimination, harassment, or retaliation when obtaining services from UW-Extension, you may file a complaint by contacting any of the following individuals or offices:

Coordinator of the Program or local county Extension
Office

Cooperative
Extension Dean's
Office

UW-Extension
Office of Equity, Diversity &
Inclusion

United States Department of Agriculture

Inform the coordinator of the program whenever possible. If it is not possible to discuss the issue with the program coordinator, or if the complaint is against the program coordinator, request to speak to a supervisor in the local county Extension office
