

How to File an Employment-Related Complaint of Discrimination or Harassment (by employees, volunteers, job applicants)

UW-Extension takes complaints related to Affirmative Action, Equal Employment Opportunity, Civil Rights, and Sexual Harassment very seriously. A complaint or charge of discrimination or harassment can be registered by any person (employee, program or activity participant, job applicant, visitor, volunteer, etc.) who has reason to believe that they have been subjected to or witnessed unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation in an Extension education program or activity, or in the employment setting. For further information, please see the UW-Extension policy on Unlawful Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Protected Status Harassment, and Retaliation.

If you believe you have experienced or witnessed discrimination, harassment, or retaliation in the employment setting, you may file a complaint by contacting any of the following individuals or offices:

If applicable, inform your immediate supervisor as soon as possible. If it is not possible to discuss the issue with your supervisor, or if the complaint is against your supervisor, you may contact any of the
