

LANGUAGE ACCESS TEAM SERVICES

OFFICE OF ACCESS, INCLUSION, AND COMPLIANCE

This infographic provides a brief overview of the Language Access team's services under the Office of Access, Inclusion, and Compliance.

Translation

The Language Access Team coordinates translation services for colleagues around the state. Translated written materials are one of the few ways for colleagues to provide access to Limited English Proficient (LEP) audiences.

Interpretation

The Language Access Team coordinates interpretation services for colleagues Around the state through in-person simultaneous interpretation and consecutive interpreting, online Zoom interpretation, and more. Interpretation services help expand access to Extension programming by accommodating the needs of participants who are dominant in a language other than English.

Proofing

In some cases, language access needs are provided by Extension colleagues around the state. The Language Access Team can assist with proofing multilingual texts to ensure accuracy and cultural responsiveness of content that is designed to serve LEP audiences.

Voiceover recordings

Translations and interpretation are just some ways to provide access. The Language Access coordinates voiceover recordings for videos or content that are intended for more permanent uses.

Content review

The Language Access Team can review programming, curriculum, and other Content and provide recommendations as needed. Content reviews are intended to identify factors that may inhibit cultural relevancy and accuracy for the content's intended audience.

Learn more at <https://blogs.extension.wisc.edu/oaic>

Contact us at: oaic@extension.wisc.edu